In Memoriam.

BROWN. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, CHARLES BROWN, who died one year ago today, October 27, 1912. One year has passed by, my heart's still sore As time goes on I miss you more; Your memory is as dear today As in the hour you passed away. Rest on, dear father, your labor is o'er; Your willing hands will toil no more, A faithful father, both true and kind;

BY SON AND DAUGHTERS CRANDALL. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother and wife, LENA M. CRANDALL, who died one year ago today, October 27, 1911.

Day by day we saw her fade And slowly pass away. But in our hearts we often prayed That she might longer stay.

Through all her pains she often smiled, A smile of heavenly birth. And when the angels called her home She smiled farewell to earth. BY HER DAUGHTERS One year has passed and still I miss you; Friends may think the wound has healed. But little do they know the sorrow That lies within my heart concealed.

BY HER HUSBAND Thou art not forgotten, mother, Nor wilt thou ever be; As long as life and memory last We will remember thee,

EE. Sacred to the memory of our dear father and husband, PLATO S. LEE, who departed this life three years ago today, October 27,

We mourn the loss of one
We did our best to save;
Beloved on earth, treasured still,
Remembered in his grave. A few more suns shall set On the dark hills of time, And we shall be with thee,

Where the sun forever shines. BELOVED WIFE AND DAUGHTERS, CHAR-LOTTE LEE AND ELIZA AND LOTTIE.
